

MARTIN BROWN – THE DUDE WHO BROKE MY NECK

This amazing and thought-provoking keynote presentation will take you on an eye-opening journey that will leave you breathless. The staggering potential of us mere mortals, to survive, and excel is not always so evident to us.

- We procrastinate all the time
- Always have excuses upon excuses
- We underestimate our own self worth
- And we quit just before we reach our goals

But now based on the true life story of a quadriplegic who lost it all, paralysed from the neck down, only able to move his head, Martin will take you through the depths of adversity, and he will show you how he turned it all around.

This story is told with a lurking twist that stirs all kinds of emotions and will leave you with an inspiring messages that is guaranteed to change your thinking forever.

Designed for all levels of business people across the corporate environment, this presentation is delivered in a story-telling fashion by a master story teller, from the presenters' own personal life experiences that is emotional and uplifting, with some innovative personal and business lessons.

The Dude Who broke my Neck takes a path through some shattering personal loss and Martin knows how to stir passion, inspire action and genuinely move people to change. It is designed to make people think creatively and innovatively showing that our only obstacle in life is the grey matter between our ears.

"Then silence... this was like a wary goosebumps type of silence. It was the silence before the barrage of questions that I knew would ultimately seal my fate. Questions I knew the answers too, but I didn't want to know the answers. "Can you move your foot?"

Martin Brown's presenting skills will draw the audience to the edge of their seats and send them on a breathtaking journey. You will explore the world of the seemingly impossible experiencing determination, innovation and the challenge of risk. Once you hear him speak, you'll want him back. For the keynote or adversity development program that everyone will be talking about long after your event is over, book Martin for this inspiring keynote.

"There are mainly two things define us: Our tenacity when we have absolutely nothing and our attitude when we have it all."

