

5 QUESTIONS WITH 5 SEASONS

UBUNTU CHILDREN'S CHOIR

April 2012

We talk to Philip Dlabantu, the choir master of the heart-warming Ubuntu Children's Choir.

qA1: How often does the choir rehearse?

We rehearse at least twice a week! As they say, "Practice makes perfect"!

qA2: Who makes your cute costumes?

Our very unique costumes are designed by myself, Philip Dlabantu, and made by Jasmine Lewis based in Strand, Cape Town.

qA3: Performance highlights so far?

Our performance at Kirstenbosch with Gcima Hlophe! Other highlights would definitely include performing at various malls and the CTICC in Cape Town, as part of the 2010 FIFA Soccer World Cup celebrations.

qA4: Do the kids get along?

The kids get along extremely well because of their shared love for music! It's been 9 years since we started the Ubuntu Children's Choir (established in 2003), which would not be possible without the spirit of togetherness, Love, Respect and Trust amongst the members.

qA5: How has being a part of the Ubuntu Children's Choir impacted the kids' lives?

The choir has travelled all over Cape Town, performing at the most beautiful venues and interacting people from different cultural backgrounds.
